Duly authorized deputy means a person who is presently authorized to perform all of the functions, exercise all of the powers, and discharge all of the duties of an office in the event the office is vacant or at such times as it lacks administration due to the death, absence, or disability of the incumbent officer.

Emergency has the same meaning as in Charter 15.14.

Emergency interim successor means a person designated pursuant to this chapter for possible temporary succession to the powers and duties, but not the office, of a City and Borough officer in the event that the officer or any duly authorized deputy is unavailable to exercise the powers and discharge the duties of the office.
Unavailable means either that a vacancy in office exists and there is no deputy authorized to exercise all of the powers and discharge the duties of the office, or that the lawful incumbent of the office, including any deputy exercising the powers and discharging the duties of an office because of a vacancy, and a duly authorized deputy is absent or unable, for physical, mental, or legal reasons, to exercise the powers and discharge the duties of the office.

03.35.030 Emergency interim successors; designation.

(c) Review of designation. The incumbent in the case of those elective officers specified in subsection (a) of this section, and the appointing authority in the case of those appointive officers specified in subsection (b) of this section, shall review and, as necessary, promptly revise the designations of emergency interim successors to ensure that at all times there are at least three such qualified emergency interim successors or duly authorized deputies or any combination thereof for each officer specified.

(d) Qualifications. No person shall be designated or serve as an emergency interim successor unless under the Constitution of this state and Charter or provisions of this Code, that person may hold the office of the person to whose powers and duties the designee is designated to succeed, but no provision of law prohibiting an officer or employee of this City and Borough from holding another office shall be applicable to an emergency interim successor.

(e) Status of emergency interim successor. A person designated as an emergency interim successor holds that designation at the pleasure of the designator; provided, that the designee must be replaced if removed.
